SAAB SALOMON

24 Hour MTB team endurance event

Thanks for applying to race in the solo category of Saab Salomon Mountain Mayhem. Your entry is reserved. In order to ensure that you get the most out of the 24 hour race and to ensure you are given the best support, we have created this separate and additional entry form for the solo category. Please fill it in and return it to the address below as soon as possible.

There is great demand for places in the solo category, so we have to limit places and award them on the merit of the riders. Please list on the reverse of this sheet, what other endurance races you have done in the past. Bear in mind that racing solo for 24 hours is a VERY strenuous activity and is not something to be done lightly. The minimum race experience we would expect you to have is a six, or eight hour solo race. Please don't underestimate how hard it might be. In the event of the race being over-subscribed, preference will be given to those with the most race experience. As well as trying to ensure your wellbeing, we want to make sure that we're not turning away riders or teams in favour of someone who will pull out after three laps.

I, the undersigned, have read the guidelines and appreciate just how darn hard solo 24 hour racing is. I declare that I am trained, and prepared - mentally, physically and in terms of my level of support, food and equipment - to race mountain bikes for 24 hours. I realise that I will need at least six hours' worth of lighting and that I MUST tell an official if I am leaving the course for any reason. In addition, I declare that I understand the risks and that my riding skills and bike(s) are up to such a test of endurance and agree to compete in a cheerful and sportsmanlike manner. I also agree not to hold Saab, Salomon, its employees or organisers, or those of Sandwell Park Farm or the local council and its associates liable for any mishap or injury caused during the duration of the Mountain Mayhem Event.
